

Maya Hristova Lesinska, MD,PhD

Education:

Doctor of Medicine - Medical University "Iv. P. Pavlov" – Plovdiv.

Doctoral Thesis "The home of Charity and People's Health "Dimitar Petrov Kudoglu" and its place in the history of Bulgarian Healthcare"

Professional development:

Pediatrician in RB-Tutrakan

Scientific collaborator NOMO, MU, Plovdiv

Senior Assistant professor, Department of Social Medicine, Medical University of Plovdiv

Senior Assistant professor, Department of Social Medicine, Medical University of Plovdiv

Specializations:

Qualification course in social hygiene in emergency hospital - NISM Sofia 1986.

Specialist in social medicine and organization of healthcare

Qualification course in "Health Management" - MU-Plovdiv

Scientific Interests:

Social medicine, medical ethics, history of medicine

Membership:

Bulgarian Medical Association

Publications:

M. Lesinska, The French military hospital in Plovdiv – 1912 (First disclosure of archives).

Public Health and Health Care in Greece and Bulgaria: The Challenge of the Cross-border Collaboration , Athens, Greece 2010:817-23

Lesinska M, Contribution of the Home of Charity and People's Health “ Dimitar Petrov Kudoglu” in Plovdiv to the Recognized Responsibility for the National Future.

Second Bulgarian – Greek Scientific Conference “Public Health and Health Care in Greece and Bulgaria: The Challenge of the Cross-border Collaboration”; 2010 October 8-10; Plovdiv, Bulgaria. Papazissis Publishers; Athens, Greece; 2011. P. 353-359

Lesinska M, Shivachev S., Dimitar Kudoglu - Benefactor, Plovdiv, Janet - 45, 2011, ISBN 978-954-26-1031-1