

TEST 1

1. Occupational disease is.....?

- a) Any illness caused exclusively or predominantly by the impact of occupational risk factors of the working environment or organization of work
- b) Accident causing sudden injury to any parts or functions of the body, or causing the death of the workers
- c) Always included in the List of Occupational Diseases

2. Specific occupational diseases.....

- a) Cannot be with non-occupational origin, only the occupational risk factors may cause them
- b) Can be with non-occupational and occupational origin
- c) Are with complex multifactorial etiology and the occupational risk factors may only trigger ,provoke, aggravate or accelerate them, but they are neither the only, nor the main causes of the disease

3. Occupational disease is

- a) acutely acquired injury, which obligatory induces incapacity to work or leads to the death of the victim with a clear cause-effect relationship
- b) chronic or subacute condition leading or not to inability to work and disability

4. Epidemiological test is..?

- a) the incidence of the disease in the working groups should be higher compared with the general population
- b) worsening of the signs and symptoms of the disease,when the worker goes back to work after longer period of absence
- c) improvement of the signs and the symptoms of the disease when the worker is not at work

5. List of Occupational Diseases is...?

- a) same for every country
- b) is specific for every country

c) recommended by the International Labor Organization and plays a key role in harmonizing occupational disease policies and promoting their prevention across countries