

ORDINANCE

№ P-2050/09.11.2021

On the grounds of Decision of the Rector's Council with Protocol № 18/02.11.2021 in connection with the continuation of the practical training in preclinical departments and according to the Ordinance of the Minister of Health № ПД-01-890/03.11.2021

I ORDER

As of 15.11.2021 the practical training in preclinical departments, sections, specialties to be conducted in person, except for those where it is impossible to strictly observe the anti-epidemic measures for in-person educational process, after decisions made for each particular case by Deans of Faculties and Directors of Medical College, and Department of Languages and Specialized Training.

Heads of the main structural units of MU-Plovdiv to inform weekly the students about the conducting of educational process in person in the departments, sections, specialties by 12.11.2021.

The Ordinance to be brought to the knowledge of Vice-Rectors, Deans of Faculties, Directors of Medical College and Department of Languages and Specialized Training, Assistant Rector and Chairman of the Student Council for information and implementation.

This Ordinance to be published on the website of the University along with the approved decisions of the departments for conducting the practical training by Deans of Faculties, Directors of Medical College and Department of Languages and Specialized Training.

I assign the control over implementation of the Ordinance to the Vice Rector of Educational activities.

Professor Marianna Murdjeva, MD, PhD, MHM
Rector