

ALGORITHM FOR CONDUCTING THE EXAM IN
"MEDICAL ETHICS AND DEONTOLOGY" FOR THE SPECIALTIES OF THE FACULTY OF PUBLIC HEALTH
ENGLISH TRAINING

The exam in "Medical Ethics and Deontology" constitutes the final stage of training in the relevant specialties, and it is in the form of a single test on paper. The test consists of a set of questions focused on the subject "Deontology" and the subject "Medical Ethics". To successfully pass the test, it is necessary to cover 60 percent of correct answers, and the exact format of the test is determined by the Head of the subject "Medical Ethics" in the relevant Department in the Faculty of Health Care of MU-Plovdiv after consultation with the Head of the Department of Forensic Medicine and Deontology.

If the test result is Weak (2), the exam is considered to have been failed.
